

Writers' FORUM

poetry competition

Want to see YOUR poem published in Writers' Forum?

Any topic, any style – all entries welcome! Rhyming or free verse, haiku or sonnet, funny, sad, romantic or angry...

Prize £100 and a Chambers Thesaurus

ALL ENTRIES WITH AN SAE RECEIVE A SHORT CRITIQUE

- Poems must be a maximum of 40 lines and printed on A4.
- Give your name, address, phone number and email address.
- Please add a brief biography of yourself: age, occupation, family, writing career to date, favourite poets. (This will have no bearing on the judging.)
- Entry fee is £4 per poem, or £6 if you would like a short but helpful critique from the poetry editor. Cheques (in sterling only) should be made payable to 'Select Publisher Services' or fill in your credit-card details (right).
- If your poem is chosen we may ask you to send a good-quality photo of yourself.

How to enter

Fill in the coupon and post with a stamped addressed envelope and your cheque or credit-card details to:

Writers' Forum Poetry Contest
PO Box 6337, Bournemouth BH1 9EH

By entering, authors will have been deemed to agree for the poem to appear in Writers' Forum and possible future Writers' Forum anthologies. Copyright remains with the author. Please note that we would like to use news of our winners for publicity purposes in national and local press, but entrants can opt out of having their names and photos published. The competition is open to all nationalities but entries must be in English.
